Earl Newsom, Esq.

Dear Earl:

Many thanks for your letter of September 25, enclosing the memorandum of your recent meeting held in Washington. I had had a full report from General Cabell of that meeting, and find your follow-up memorandum of great interest, and we will be studying it here.

Faithfully yours,

(S)ALLEN W. DUNES

Note: Memo sent to C/EE [redacted] and [redacted] of EE for consideration and comment.

Dear Earl:

My reply to your letter of September 29th is somewhat belated as I have been out of the country for a time.

+ I read the copy of your letter to Max Taylor with considerable interest and think some of your points are entirely valid. On the other hand, I am sure you are aware that much of what you propose requires substantial changes in policy which are, of course, outside of my bailiwick. Perhaps we will have an opportunity to discuss some of your views a little later on.

With best wishes,

Faithfully yours,

ALLIED

Dear Allen:

While you were in Europe, we met with the group in Washington as General Cabell undoubtedly reported to you. Following that meeting, I sent the attached letter to General Taylor. I am told you are now back in town and want, therefore, to get this copy of my letter in your hands promptly.

Yours ever,

Earl Newsom
